Introduction Email Template for Real Estate

Subject line: Need help finding your new home?

Hello, [Prospect Name]!

My name is [your name], and I hear you're searching for your new dream home. It's an exciting time! But it can also be tricky to navigate, especially with [mention a challenge in the real estate industry specific to your location].

I understand that buying a new home is one of the biggest decisions you'll make. Having been in real estate in [location] for [#] years now, I'm well acquainted with all these new developments and helping future homeowners find their best match. Over the past year, I've helped connect [#] families with their dream home!

Please feel free to contact me at [your email or phone number] or set up an appointment at [insert your calendar link] to meet anytime. If you have any real estate-related questions, I'm also happy to answer them via this email thread!

Thanks again for your time!

All the best,

Seller Lead Email

Subject line: Let's get the most out of your home

Hi, [First Name]!

Selling a home is exciting—congratulations! It's a new beginning for you and your family.

The first thing to do is to gather all the information about your area, property, and recent home sales so we can make a plan. I'll put all of this into a personalized comparative market analysis (CMA) for you to read over and start gathering your thoughts, questions, or concerns.

You don't have to do anything for the CMA—that's my job! But it won't be completely accurate if I don't have a firsthand look at your property. When do you have 30 minutes next week for me to stop over?

For now, here's the most recent market data for [neighborhood name]. It's clear that [specific detail about the local market], so [brief description of how that will impact the home sale]. I'm thrilled to start planning how we can get the best value for your home!

Feel free to reply here or text/call me at [contact number] with any questions at all.

Talk soon!

Open House Follow-up Email

Subject line: Thanks for stopping by [property name]

Dear [Prospect Name],

It was really nice meeting you [and your family, if applicable] at the [listing address] open house. I wanted to touch base and see if you had any questions, feedback, or requests I can help with.

I'd love to hear more about what you're looking for in a home. If you're looking for something different, I have some other properties that might be a better fit.

Please feel free to contact me here or at [phone number] if you'd like to see other homes or have questions about [street name].

Thank you!

Post-showing Email

Subject: What are your thoughts about [property address]?

Hi [Client Name],

Thanks again for your time checking out [property address]. How was the experience?

I'd love to hear your honest thoughts about the property. You have your own unique needs and perspectives, and I can't tell you how valuable it is to hear positive and negative feedback about the property or its online listing.

If you're thinking of submitting an offer, give me a heads-up here so I can be ready for it and prevent any delays.

You probably have a lot on your mind, but any thoughts you can send over would be enormously valuable to me.

Again, many thanks for your time, and I'm looking forward to hearing from you!
